These terms do not grant you the right to use any branding or logos used in our Services. You may not remove, obscure, or alter any legal notices displayed in or along with our Services.

Our Services display some content that is not Idee's. This content is the sole responsibility of the entity that makes it available. We may review content to determine whether it is illegal or violates our policies, and we may remove or refuse to display content that we reasonably believe violates our policies or the law. In connection with your use of the Services, we may send you service announcements, administrative messages, sponsorship promotions, beacon announcements and other information. You may opt out of some of those communications by setting your email frequency in your personal settings.

Some of our Services are available on mobile devices. Do not use such Services in a way that distracts you and prevents you from obeying traffic or safety laws.

Your Idee Account

You may need a Idee Account in order to use some of our Services. You may create your own Idee Account, or your Idee Account may be assigned to you by an administrator.

To protect your Idee Account, keep your password and Nymi band confidential and secure. You are responsible for the activity that happens on or through your Idee Account. Do not reuse your Idee Account password on third-party applications. If you learn of any unauthorized use of your password or Idee Account, contact us immediately at tre-uniti@belle-idee.org

Privacy and Copyright Protection

Idee's privacy policies explain how we treat your personal data and protect your privacy when you use our Services. By using our Services, you agree that Idee can use such data in accordance with our privacy policies.

We respond to notices of alleged copyright infringement and terminate accounts of repeat infringers according to the process set out in the U.S. Digital Millennium Copyright Act.

We provide information to help copyright holders manage their intellectual property online. If you think somebody is violating your copyrights and want to notify us, you can submit a support request within Idee or email us at tre-uniti@belle-idee.org

Your Content in our Services

Some of our Services allow you to upload, submit, store, send or receive (Transmit) content. Any content you post publicly to the Idee community may be Interacted with by other users. When content is Interacted with it becomes Community Content. You retain ownership of any intellectual property rights that you hold in that Community Content unless you decide to terminate your account, at which point any Community Content is reassigned to the Transferred user. This is done in order to retain the integrity of the Community Content so other users' elevations and extensions remain intact. Your private drafts, notifications, bookmarks, and sponsorships are deleted when your account is terminated. Idee has a royalty free non-exclusive use to this class of Community Content. Any content that is submitted that is found to be copyright, slander, or libel will be deleted from the community. While it does disrupt the Community Content and any related Interactions it is required by law therefore we must adhere to deletion.

When you Transmit content to or through our Services, you give Idee (and those we work with) a worldwide license to use, host, store, reproduce, modify, create derivative works (such as those resulting from translations, adaptations or other changes we make so that your content works better with our Services), communicate, publish, publicly perform, publicly display and distribute such content. The rights you grant in this license are for the limited purpose of operating, promoting, and improving our Services, and to develop new Services. This license continues even if you stop using our Services (for example, one of your posts may continue to be elevated and extended). Some Services may offer you ways to access and remove content that has been provided to that Service. Also, in some of our Services, there are terms or settings that narrow the scope of our use of the content submitted in those Services. Make sure you have the necessary rights to grant us this license for any content that you submit to our Services.

If you have an Idee Account, we may display your Profile handle, Profile photo, and actions you take on Idee in our Services, including displaying in sponsor logos, beacon pictures, and other commercial contexts. You may select which Beacon to localize (connect) your post or extension to. You may select your sponsor and therefore the logo that will appear next to your content throughout the site. At any time you may change your sponsor or beacon to change the logo appearing next to your content.

You can find more information about how Idee uses and stores content in the privacy policy. If you submit feedback or suggestions about our Services, we may use your feedback or suggestions without obligation to you.

About Software in our Services

Idee gives you a personal, worldwide, royalty-free, non-assignable and non-exclusive license to use the software provided to you by Idee as part of the Services. This license is for the sole purpose of enabling you to use and enjoy the benefit of the Services as provided by Idee, in the manner permitted by these terms. You may not copy, modify, distribute, sell, or lease any part of our Services or included software, nor may you reverse engineer or attempt to extract the source code of that software, unless laws prohibit those restrictions or you have our written permission.

Open source software is important to us. The majority of software used in our Services may be offered under an open source license that we will make available to you. There may be provisions in the open source license that expressly override some or many of these terms.

Modifying and Terminating our Services

We are constantly changing and improving our Services. We may add or remove functionalities or features, and we may suspend or stop a Service altogether.

You can stop using our Services at any time, although we'll be sorry to see you leave. Idee may also stop providing Services to you, or add or create new limits to our Services at any time. If you decide to delete your Idee user account, then your Community Content will be reassigned to the Transferred user. This information is vital to the integrity of the community and therefore can be edited by you as the owner until you decide to delete your account. You may delete a post or extension until it has been Interacted with by another community member. Upon account deletion your Drafts, Notifications, Bookmarks, and Sponsorships are also deleted.

If we discontinue a Service, where reasonably possible, we will give you reasonable advance notice and a chance to get information out of that Service.

You should look at the terms regularly and provide us feedback if you disagree with any sections. We'll post notice when there are substantive modifications to these terms on this page as well as through an announcement from Tre-Uniti. We'll post notice of modified additional terms in the applicable Service. Changes will not apply retroactively and will become effective no sooner than fourteen days after they are posted. However, changes addressing new functions for a Service or changes made for legal reasons will be effective immediately. If you do not agree to the modified terms for a Service, you should discontinue your use of that Service. You may also submit a

If it turns out that a particular term is not enforceable, this will not affect any other terms.
